New and revised data sheets

Dear customers

We have modernized and unified our documentation landscape.

Which products are affected?

- Industrial IGBT and silicon carbide modules
- Industrial IGBT and diode discretes
- Automotive IGBT and silicon carbide modules
- Automotive IGBT discretes

What is changing for our new or revised datasheets?

- The new layout is modern and up-to-date
- For easier readability, the datasheets for industrial IGBT modules are now provided in each language (de, en, ja, zh) separately
- The versioning:
  - Final datasheets will be set to version 1.00, regardless of the previous number
  - Versions with a leading 0 denote preliminary datasheets
