

Product Owner PIM Process Interface and Quality (f/m/div)*

Job description

Your role as Product Owner is crucial for us! You are our interface to the product masterdata and quality teams and IT: You define the next feature that should be implemented as well as translate business requirements of current projects into actionable stories. Will you be our next Product Owner (f/m/div)*? We are looking forward to receiving your application!

In your new role your tasks include:

Driving the successful implementation of product masterdata and related processes into our new infrastructure as your first focus. You will work as main interface to the masterdata and quality teams, coordinate all related processes and work towards an effective automatization of all related processes based on the analysis of data from different sources.

You ensure that our solution enables a stable process for collecting, managing and enriching our product information, creating a consistent product catalog and distributing the information to all relevant marketing channels.

Furthermore, you drive continuous improvements to ensure the connection of all relevant systems to our database, making it easier and faster for our stakeholders to create and deliver a compelling digital experience to our customers and internal users. As Product Owner you are the main person keeping our stakeholders involved and updated. You will work closely with the quality and masterdata teams to understand business goals, pain points and identify opportunities for improvement to derive the roadmap.

Lastly, you are accountable to maximize the value and impact of the products (mainly PIM/IPMS, and all related interfaces) as well as for an effective Product Backlog management which includes:

- Developing and explicitly communicating the Product Goal and Benefits
- Creating and clearly communicating Product Backlog items and prioritizing those
- Ensuring that the Product Backlog is transparent, visible and understood by the development team and by our stakeholders

Profile

You describe yourself as an individual who remains aware of the big picture even in complex situations and takes decisions despite uncertain circumstances. Also, you actively look for the ideal solution and engage in professional debates with the relevant people, instead of accepting rash compromises.
