

Senior Manager Controlling Governance (f/m/div)*

Job description

In the role of Senior Manager Controlling Governance, you harmonize the global way of working in Controlling from within the newly created Governance and Process Design & Transformation teams. You will drive standardization and global comparability and increase compliance and quality in Infineon's Controlling. Moreover, you define and operationalize group Controlling governance contents and define group policies and functional guidelines. Take the opportunity to foster your career in a team of experts. Join a highly motivated team and enhance yourself further!

In your new role you will:

- Drive Infineon-wide Controlling harmonization through definition of global Controlling Governance regulations and guidelines across all Infineon processes
- Drive the standardization, global comparability of steering support and results and the quality of Infineon's Controlling function
- Define, track, maintain and update the governance framework, including monitoring of compliance
- Lead and participate in Infineon-wide, global projects to harmonize and digitalize the way of working in Controlling
- Drive together with Process Owners of Controlling and interfacing processes (e.g. HR, IT, Finance, Sales) the reliability, automation and efficiency of Infineon processes (e.g. Data Management, Planning)
- Prepare decision documents with solution options for top management buy-in in Governance Boards and escalate topics if needed
- Support the Head of Governance in developing the Controlling strategy towards harmonization, digitalization, and optimal organizational activity split
- Actively participate in the project team Controlling 2.0 of Infineon and shape the newly created Governance Team to reimagine Controlling at Infineon

Profile

You strive for high quality results. You are a team player and willing to cooperate closely with local, global, and cross-functional colleagues. Your strong problem-solving skills and flexibility enable you to remain focused on solutions and to act cooperatively even when under pressure. With your deep understanding of Controlling processes and knowledge of other Finance processes, you can develop the Controlling strategy and drive continuous optimization, standardization, and digitalization of the global way of working.

You are best equipped for this task if you have:
