

Job description

As Director of Automation, you will shape the BE wide automation and I4.0 at Infineon by roadmap, governance, standardization, concepts and execution of robust solutions.

In your new role you will:

- Manage the worldwide Automation team (organizational structure, people selection & development, education & training, efficient task allocation)
- Responsible for BE wide automation roadmap and platforms for standardization and modularization as the basis for robust and fast implementation at all sites.
- Manage innovative and complex automation/ I4.0 projects of high strategic importance in close collaboration with internal and external partners.
- Foster worldwide automation competency and give guidance towards employees in automation and I4.0
- Network with other departments and companies, participate in technical conferences and represent Infineon in external automation and I4.0 organizations

At a glance

Location: Melaka
Job ID: 38566
Start date: immediately
Entry level: Professionals / experienced
Type: Full time
Contract: Permanent

Apply to this position online by following the URL and entering the Job ID in our job search:

Job ID: 38566
www.infineon.com/jobs

Profile

You are best equipped for this task if you have:

- A solid technical background based on a degree in mechanical or electrical engineering
- More than 10 years experience in automation or / and in the semiconductor industry
- Excellent analytical skills
- The ability to apply structured problem solving methodologies and to structure complex tasks and problems.
- Proven leadership experience for example as a Team Lead or Department Head
- Deep experience to align project members across sites and divisions, outstanding team and people skills
- A passion for professional networking and a hands on mentality