

Melanie Riedl

Analysis Engineer, Vice Chairwoman of the works council
Campeon

Member of the Infineon Technologies
Supervisory Board since 2020
(elected until 2025)

Personal information

Year of birth 1972
Residence Munich
Nationality German

Education

1997 Studies in Microsystems Engineering, University of Applied Sciences
Regensburg (Dipl.-Ing. degree)

Professional career

Since 2021 Exempted member of the works council
Since 2020 Vice Chairwoman of the works council Campeon
Since 2004 Fault analysis engineer, Infineon Technologies AG
2002 - 2004 Subproject lead for transfer project Fiber Optic to Parolink Taiwan, Infineon
Technologies AG
1999 - 2004 Development engineer for photodiodes and subcomponents of silicon,
Siemens Semiconductor / Infineon Technologies AG Fiber Optic
1997 - 1999 Process development and process support for silicon lenses, Siemens
Semiconductor

Memberships in other statutory supervisory boards in Germany

None

Memberships in comparable supervisory bodies of business enterprises in Germany and abroad

None