Neubiberg, Germany, 1 August 2017 – Infineon Technologies AG today reported results for the third quarter of its 2017 fiscal year (period ended 30 June 2017).

“Our forecast has been fully confirmed. The pace of growth in the third quarter was in line with expectations,” said Dr. Reinhard Ploss, CEO of Infineon. “Demand is particularly strong for the power semiconductors we produce for various applications ranging from renewables to data centers. The market for electro-mobility also continues to accelerate. During the nine-month period ended June 2017 we acquired almost twice as much new business in this area for the coming five to ten years as in the entire previous fiscal year. Infineon is a leader in IGBTs for hybrid and electric cars, a technology which will prevail in this application for years to come. We are further expanding our strong position in this market. Overall, we confirm our outlook for the current fiscal year, despite strong headwinds caused by the weaker US dollar.”

Outlook for the 2017 fiscal year

In line with the ad hoc notification published on 24 March 2017 regarding an improved outlook for the 2017 fiscal year, Infineon continues to expect year-on-year revenue growth of 8 to 11 percent, with a Segment Result Margin of approximately 17 percent at the mid-point of revenue guidance, despite a significant headwind from the weaker US dollar. The outlook is now based on an assumed USD/EUR exchange rate of 1.15 for the fourth quarter, compared with the previous assumption of 1.10. ATV and IPC segment revenue is expected to grow faster than the Group average, whereas the PMM and CCS segments are both predicted to report growth rates below the Group average.

Investments in property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and capitalized development assets are currently planned at around €1,050 million for the 2017 fiscal year. The figure includes approximately €35 million designated for the new office building at Infineon's headquarters in Neubiberg near Munich. Depreciation and amortization are expected to be about of €815 million.

Outlook for the fourth quarter of the 2017 fiscal year

Based on the full year outlook for the 2017 fiscal year, fourth-quarter revenue is expected to be about the same level as in the previous quarter. The reason for the only stable revenue expectation is the significantly weakening assumed exchange rate of US$1.15 to the euro if compared to the prior quarter. The Segment Result Margin is expected to reach approximately 18 percent.

¹ Individual small product groups were transferred to other segments with effect from 1 October 2016. The previous year's figures have been adjusted accordingly.

ATV segment revenue declined by 2 percent to €766 million in the third quarter of the 2017 fiscal year, compared with €783 million in the previous three-month period. Demand for the segment's products remained stable, with the slight quarter-on-quarter dip in revenue reflecting mainly the weaker US dollar. Revenue generated with products for hybrid and electric vehicles continued to grow quarter-on-quarter. Demand for components installed in driver assistance systems was also slightly higher than in the preceding quarter. Segment Result amounted to €120 million, down from the €131 million reported for the second quarter of the current fiscal year. The Segment Result Margin came in at 15.7 percent, compared with 16.7 percent one quarter earlier.

IPC segment revenue rose by 10 percent from €293 million in the second quarter to €321 million in the third quarter of the current fiscal year. Demand continued to develop very positively for products used in home appliances. Revenue also increased quarter-on-quarter in the areas of photovoltaics, uninterruptible power supplies, traction, electric drives and wind power. Segment Result improved from €44 million in the second quarter to €55 million in the third quarter of the 2017 fiscal year. The Segment Result Margin came in at 17.1 percent, up from 15.0 percent one quarter earlier.

PMM segment revenue grew by 7 percent from €520 million to €557 million quarter-on-quarter, mainly reflecting rising demand for products in the fields of AC-DC and DC-DC conversion. Seasonal revenue growth was also generated with components for mobile devices. Segment Result improved from €91 million in the second quarter to €129 million in the third quarter of the 2017 fiscal year. The Segment Result Margin came in at 23.2 percent, up from 17.5 percent in the preceding quarter.

CCS segment revenue rose from €169 million to €185 million quarter-on-quarter, with most of the 9 percent revenue growth attributable to higher demand in Payment cards, government ID and eSIM applications. Segment Result improved from €29 million in the second quarter to €34 million in the third quarter. The Segment Result Margin finished at 18.4 percent, compared with 17.2 percent one quarter earlier.

Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows

Gross and Net Cash Position

The following table reconciles the gross cash position and net cash position (i.e. after deduction of debt). Since some liquid funds are held in the form of financial investments, which for IFRS purposes are not considered to be "cash and cash equivalents", Infineon reports on its gross and net cash positions in order to provide investors with a better understanding of Infineon's overall liquidity. The gross and net cash positions are determined as follows from the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position:

€in millions	30 Jun 17	31 Mar 17	30 Jun 16
Cash and cash equivalents	726	721	610
Financial investments	1,491	1,328	1,473
Gross cash position	2,217	2,049	2,083
Less:
Short-term debt and current maturities of long-term debt	20	121	17
Long-term debt	1,839	1,896	1,767
Total debt	1,859	2,017	1,784
Net cash position	358	32	299

Free Cash Flow

Infineon reports the free cash flow figure defined as net cash provided by and/or used in operating activities and net cash provided by and/or used in investing activities, both from continuing operations, after adjusting for cash flows related to the purchase and sale of financial investments. Free cash flow serves as an additional performance indicator, since Infineon holds part of its liquidity in the form of financial investments. This does not mean that the free cash flow calculated in this way is available to cover other disbursements, since dividend, debt-servicing obligations and other fixed disbursements are not deducted. Free cash flow should not be seen as a replacement or superior performance indicator, but rather as an additional useful piece of information over and above the disclosure of the cash flow reported in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, and as a supplementary disclosure to other liquidity performance indicators and other performance indicators derived from the IFRS figures. Free cash flow includes only amounts from continuing operations, and is derived as follows from the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows:

€in millions	3 months ended			9 months ended
	30 Jun 17	31 Mar 17	30 Jun 16	30 Jun 17	30 Jun 16
